It is observed that after implementation of Credit Based Semester Grading System (CBSGS), students pursuing professional courses ie C.A./C.S. prefer to join distance education programme for B.com. resulting in diminishing demand for B.Com. Also introduction of several innovative/professional courses with specialization in different areas by Mumbai University has influenced the demand for general course like B.Com. In order to increase the demand for in house programmes awareness & promotion campaign for all courses are conducted in DISHA- The Career fair.

If required, the class of the differently abled student is shifted to the ground floor. Ramp is provided for the smoother movement of differently abled students. Infrastructural changes are made for such students whenever required.

One of our student who was suffering from Anhidrotic Ectodermal Dysplasia meaning total lack of sweating & extreme body temperature, required air conditioning facility during examination. He was given this facility for all examinations internal as well as Semester for F.Y.B.Com. & S.Y.B.Com. The same was communicated to Mumbai University and followed up for T.Y.B.Com. Examination. The student was given the center close to his residence and the required facility was provided for T.Y.B.Com. (Sem V & VI) examinations.

2.2.2 Does the institution assess the students' needs in terms of knowledge and skills before the commencement of the programme? If 'yes', give details of the process.

The College has started implementing e-delivery system of question papers by the Mumbai University and the online Examination form filling for final year students.

The college has initiated major examination reforms. The password protected question papers are mailed to examination email –id. Unique codes are given to all question papers for confidentiality. All the answer papers are masked and bundled. The bundles are sealed, shuffled and numbered to prevent any foul play or unfair practices. During CAP, examiner takes the bundle one by one, puts serial numbers on the answer papers, assesses the bundle, seals and returns to the CAP in-charge. Moderation of the answer papers is carried out as per the University norms. Thereafter the answer papers are unmasked and the mark list is prepared. The faculty is provided with required ICT for preparing the question papers. The non teaching staff is trained to adapt to the changes in the system such as masking, bundling, shuffling, unmasking and CAP. Guidelines are issued to junior/senior supervisors, understudy supervisors, examiners and moderators for the smooth functioning of the system.

The college is a lead CAP centre for assessment of answer papers of the University Examination.

Internal Assessment of the students is conducted as per University requirements. It consists of Internal tests, assignments and student participation in class and College activities.

The examination schedule, the marking scheme of the Internal assessment is communicated to the students and parents (for the first year students only) at the orientation program at the beginning of the year itself. The meeting of students who have taken admission late is conducted to make them aware of the examination system. The teachers make the announcements of the Internal assessment time to time specially to the students with less attendance.

The topics of the assignments are displayed on soft boards in the class rooms and also are kept in the college library. The signatures of students are taken at the time of submission of the assignments and these sheets are maintained by the teachers. Audits:

Administrative processes are streamlined and internal and external audits are carried out which has helped in smooth functioning of the process.

Internal and external audits are conducted for all the teaching learning processes. Teachers submit semester wise and month wise plan along with reports for conduct of theory, tutorial and practical classes to their respective heads of departments. Advice is given and corrective action taken wherever necessary.

In order to ensure total transparency in examination processes a thorough exam audit is conducted by the examination committee for both, internal and external examinations.

Admission audits are carried out by an external auditor.

Quality Management

Our College has become fully aware of the need for quality and has adopted ISO 9001:2008 and regular ISO audit has been conducted since 2006. IQAC committee follows Internal Quality Maintenance and Improvements as laid down by NAAC and continuous efforts are being made to achieve quality goals and objectives.

7.3 Best Practices

7.3.1 Elaborate on any two best practices which have contributed to the achievement of the Institutional Objectives and/or contributed to the Quality improvement of the core activities of the college.

Best Practice – I

“We must have life building, man making and character building education”.

- Swami Vivekananda

1. Title of the Practice:

Value Enhancement through teaching learning process.

2. Goal

The College aims at providing holistic education which enables students to achieve intellectual, emotional, social and spiritual capabilities for socially responsible citizenship.

3. The Context

Education in the modern context is often evaluated only in terms of how much information and skills one possesses. As propounded by our ancient seers, what is equally important, is the development of a holistic personality which will lead to greater peace, prosperity and harmony in the world.

A purely employment oriented education today has led to a focus on materialistic achievements resulting in an atmosphere of excessive competition. Students are under extreme pressure to succeed at all costs. Scams and corruption have become the order of the day. It therefore becomes highly essential to reorient the students with value based learning.

4. The Practice

■ Intellectually the students are groomed to develop critical, analytical, creative thinking along with decision making ability. Learning is experiential and activity based. Innovative methods are used to make the learning a meaningful experience. Various forms of assessment are used for continuous evaluation such as group discussions, assignments, power-point presentations, class test to name a few. Various co-curricular activities are also organized for the learners. These activities give an opportunity to the students to put their knowledge and skills into application.

■ Emotional intelligence enables an individual to handle life better. Students are groomed for personality development. Psychological tests are administered and counseling sessions are conducted to boost their self esteem. Workshops are conducted to handle stress, emotions, anger, conflicts.

■ Socially students are groomed for leadership, taught teamwork, self discipline, relationship management and being empathetic towards others. The students are groomed for event management. They organize college functions like FANTASIES, FINOVA, DISHA, EDIT, BUDDHI, etc. and other cultural programs. NSS and NCC activities inculcate social consciousness and patriotism among students. An aspect very unique about our college is the freedom given to learners to learn and share their views and ideas.

■ For spiritual growth students are taught many techniques of prayer, meditation, yoga, and other exercises.

The young generation is the pillar of the nation and educational institutions play a vital role in building and sustaining the future. Our College through holistic learning contributes to the strengthening of valuable human resource.

5. Evidence of success

During our interactions with students and alumni we noticed that they have evolved into responsible citizens and they were better prepared to face challenges based on the values imbibed during their college years. Values like punctuality, team management, social consciousness, team work and leadership qualities instilled in them by College has helped them to integrate with society and progress in their careers.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

The gap between ideals and reality, precept and practice has widened and this has diminished the importance of values. Excessive focus on materialism, need to succeed at any cost, and impatience with rules, regulations and discipline has led to a growing immunity to erosion of values.

Lack of emphasis on value education in university curriculum is another problem.

Best Practice – II

1. Title of the Practice:

System transparency.

2. Goal

The aim is to have efficiency and effectiveness in governance in the areas of admission, administration and examination.

3. The Context

With education becoming global it is quality which determines the success of an educational institution in the long run. Accountability and transparency in the functioning of an institution not only enhances its quality but also reinforces perception of quality among stakeholders. Hence the institution with the aim to provide the best of educational services embarked upon system transparency.

4. The Practice

In order to ensure effectiveness system transparency is insisted upon.

■ Administration:

The College follows an open door policy with easy access to Principal, Vice Principals, Co-ordinators, Heads of Departments, Faculty and Office staff.

There is an effective grievance redressal mechanism which ensures free and fair redressal with the active participation of stakeholders.

ISO Audit is conducted for administrative processes.

■ Admission:

Admissions are purely based on merit. Management quota seats have been transferred in favour of meritorious students. Details of cut offs, merit lists and vacant seats are made available in the public domain.

External audits are undertaken for the admission process.

■ Examination:

Examination system has been overhauled with 100% audit.

5. Evidence of success

- No admission related grievances have been received.

- Ensuring social inclusion.

6. Problems encountered and Resources Required

- Admission process is prolonged and time consuming.

Answer to Q No. 24

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning

■ Case Study

Students are given real life case studies on various topics and are asked to present the same in the form of a thorough analysis of the case study along with its solutions and recommendations.

■ Group Discussion

Subject Related topics are given to the students. Groups are made and a structured discussion takes place.

■ Debates

Teams are made and topics are allotted to the students. A debate is then encouraged to facilitate brain storming and critical and analytical thinking.

■ Presentations

Groups are made and topics are allotted to each group. Using LCD and projector screens, students make power point presentations. The ppts are made by students by using various tools for research on a topic which includes reference books, internet aid, on the field visits, etc. Presentations improve analytical skills of the students and hone their skills (speech and diction, public speaking, etc).

▪ Live Market / Mock Trading

Through the use of Internet, students are exposed to live market with the effective use of websites like: www.nseindia.com, www.bseindia.com, www.moneycontrol.com, www.rbi.org.in.

▪ Quiz

Quizzes are conducted on a particular topic in the subject. This fosters a sense of learning and confidence in the students.

▪ Diagrams And Flowchart

In order to effect quick and easy learning and also to help the students to easily remember the topics, faculties use picture tools and techniques to illustrate various concepts.

▪ Continous Evaluation Through Tests

After every unit is completed from the syllabus, teachers evaluate the students, based on class tests. This helps the teacher to understand the student's hold on a topic and thus helps in evaluating the students. It also helps to find out if the student requires additional help in a particular topic.

▪ Guest Lectures & Seminars

Industry Experts and Academic Experts from the field of Finance are invited to the campus, to understand the real implications of the subjects. A Question and Answer session is encouraged to provide more clarity to the students. This not only helps in understanding real economic scenarios but also provides a platform for network building with industry experts.

▪ News Discussion And Analysis

It's a general practice for the department to discuss daily news and analyze its implications on everyday lives and the economy. This enables critical thinking among the students and also encourages reading habits among the students.

▪ Role Plays

Students are asked to enact various aspects of the topics given to them. Due to this both the parties – the students enacting the play and the students watching the play are benefited. It helps in clearer understanding which is imprinted forever in the minds of the students. Also students take a lot of interest in staging role plays.

▪ Mnemonics

Faculties facilitate easy learning and easy to remember methods by effective use of Mnemonics.
