Influential Dressing 101

Project basic details

Project name: Influential Dressing 101

Venue: Online- Google Meet

Date: 28-10-22

Attendance: 28

Speaker: Ms.Sakshi Dua

Avenue 1: Professional Development

Project description

Aim: The aim of this project was to spread the importance of Dressing well and appropriately in a corporate setting to maintain one's personality and image in front of their peers/ seniors.

The directors of Professional Development felt like this was a topic where they needed to throw some light on and decided to conduct this event. The speaker was known to us since we had done an event with her last year on a different topic. She was contacted via mail and after we had decided upon a date and time after she agreed to conduct this webinar. A small gist of the event was sent to PR to approach the speaker for this event. The supporting avenues were contacted to make the PR message and the jpeg. The jpeg was changed as per the speaker. The event was promoted through Instagram stories and jpeg was also posted on the speaker's socials. The jpeg and PR message was circulated in the groups for further promotions.

The event turned out to be really great and informative for all the attendees as they got to know about various different concepts like how even the colors and patterns of an outfit affect the power or authority one can get just from wearing those clothes. The participants also got to learn about design elements and image breakers among other topics.

The speaker for this event was Ms.Sakshi Dua - a certified image consultant from the Image Consulting Business Institute(ICBI). She has trained 250+ individuals on appearance management, influential dressing, business and social etiquette and other elements of visual image and personality. The webinar was conducted on 28th October on Google meet and the link was circulated in all the groups.

Sakshi Dua is presenting

To summarize

- Influential dressing is all about dressing to convey confidence, competence and credibility.
- It's about appearing organized, knowledgeable and approachable.
- It's about using clothing as a resource to your advantage to meet your goals and objectives.
- When in doubt, always dress up rather than down.

Report on One Day Trip to NSE

Date : 6th September 2022

Time : 10am

Places to Visit : The National Stock Exchange

No of Students : 59 (SYBFM)

The BFM course, as the name suggests, stands for financial markets and a trip to The National Stock Exchange (NSE), is a must-visit to keep the students informed about how the Indian financial market functions. The students of this year's SYBFM batch were privileged as one of the faculty members, the class teacher of SYBFM, Ms Falguni Matthews took an initiative to take them to one the prime financial board. A group of 59 students along with Ms Falguni Matthews visited the NSE Exchange Plaza.

The students gathered on the opposite side of the National Stock Exchange gate at 10 am, and thereafter, at 10:45 pm they headed towards The National Stock Exchange accompanied by their class teacher.

Before the seminar began, on the auspicious occasion of Ganesh Chaturti the students were allowed to take darshan of the idol and explore the decorative environment which was put up there.

At around 11:45 am they were addressed by Mr Karan Joshi. He started by enlightening everybody about the history of NSE. It was quite an informative session for the students as he further briefed them about the equity markets. He explained the gist about financial derivatives and explained more on how and when to invest in a company by showing them his portal. He also encouraged students to take up a career in this field & become professional traders. After the seminar was over, Mr Kunal Mehta took a Quiz session for the students where he gave customized NSE goodies to the students giving the correct answer. The vote of thanks was then given by one of the CR named Akshata Venkatraman.

Overall it was an insightful trip and the students took back home aspirations of becoming future traders .

Hire Me

Project basic details

Project Name: Hire Me: Phase 1

Venue: Sies SE Auditorium

Date 20-08-22

Attendance: 75

Speakers : Amanjeet Singh Malhotra and Mrinmoy Dutta.

Avenue 1: Professional Development

Avenue 2:

Project description

Aim: This project aims at providing resourceful information to the participants to broaden their perspectives, enhance their knowledge and understand the importance of forming a skill set that would help them shine in today's corporate world.

On the day of the event, Professional development directors from all the collaborating clubs reported at the avenue which was SIES SE at 1:00 pm. By the time everyone showed up a registration desk was set up by the PD directors OF RCSIESSE. The registration was open till 2:10. We got the auditorium by 1:30 pm. Every club's banner was hung up. The speakers showed up by 2 and within 30 mins of them showing up we started the event.

The event started with the first speaker talking about building up your confidence and how one can achieve big things in life if they believe in themselves. Then after this, our second Speaker talked everything about how a cv is made, what is to be put in the cv, what is the difference between a cv and a resume. HE also talked about how one should present oneself in an interview. The event ended with a Q&A session where the speaker addressed all the doubts the attendees had. The attendees were given refreshments and certificates in the end.

The project was carried out with the main motive of giving the attending the insights about how having a good CV can increase your chances of getting the job you have applied for, and most importantly how to ace the interview once you are called up for it. And also, people lacking in confidence found their inspiration in the words of our first speaker and were given amazing insights about how a positive mindset can impact your way of work.

Project description

Skillogram event was carried out so people with different skills/talents could have a platform to showcase them. The project Skillogram was carried out for people with skill/talents, to give them a platform to perform and showcase them, amateur or master in what they do.

Our club's International Service Directors for the year 2022-2023 launched the project Skillogram 3.0 which was an initiative for the past two years too where a stage was given to people with different talents and skills for them to perform/showcase them and get recognized for them. The participants sent the organizers the videos/pictures of their skills/talents through google form. The submissions were then compiled into videos which were then posted on our club's official social media page. The participants had sent the organizers the videos and pictures of them showcasing their skills/talents and which would be further posted on social media. People enthusiastically participating; so many different skills and talents being shown at our platform. It was exhilarating once being a part of it directly and once supervising it happen.

DIVERSIFIED UNIFICATION

Project basic details

Project Name: Diversified Unification

Venue: Offline

Date: 20/12/2022

Attendance: 30

Avenue 1: International Service Avenue

Project description

Aim:

Diversified Unification was carried out in order to celebrate our unity in diversity; and also to highlight more focus on cooperation in social, cultural or humanitarian character. All the volunteers and participants gathered in the SIES college. The President and Secretary of RCSIESSE and the ZRR of Zone 3A of District 3141 arrived.

The event began when all the teams, volunteers had arrived and were prepared for what we had in store for them. All the instructions were given to the teams and their heads. The President was hidden in Dadar whilst the Secretary was hidden in Sion and the ZRR was hidden in Matunga. 3 teams were supposed to find each hidden person; 3 teams finding the President, 3 teams finding the Secretary, 3 teams finding the ZRR. The first team who finds their respective target wins. Each team consists of 5 participants and 2 volunteers. Each team was given 5 clues and during anywhere between the first and the fifth clue were supposed to perform 3 dares. Leaving private vehicles any other mode of public transport was allowed. A time limit was given to each of the three teams; 3 teams who were given the ZRR as the target had 2 hours to find him and bring him back whilst for the President and Secretary 2 ½ hours and 1 ½ hours respectively. After the teams brought back their given targets they were awarded with medals and gift vouchers and with the President concluding the event and a big group picture was taken the event was concluded. As this project's focus was on making people work together to achieve a certain goal the International Human Solidarity Day seeking to celebrate the world's 'unity in diversity' was brought to life. Both the pre-work of the event and the actual event happened because different people, keeping their differences aside, proceeded to work together and make this project a grand success. Whilst working they got to know each other their strengths and weaknesses; bonding with each other. Places were selected and rhyming clues were made from which participants had to decipher which places they had to go. Dares were made to keep the entertainment of the participants whilst to give them a challenge. Proper coordination was made between the organizers, volunteers and participants to make sure nothing went wrong. The participants went on the hunt failing and succeeding. Everyone's satisfaction when their hard work results showed when they got praised for their dedication towards a cause.

REPORT:

SIES College of Commerce and Economics (Autonomous) Sion (east)

Report of on Alumni lectures

Overview

SIES College of Commerce and Economics (Autonomous) organized a three-day alumni session for its first-year students from August 10th to 13th, 2022. The session aimed to equip students with fundamental knowledge about financial planning, portfolio management, and investment alternatives. This initiative was particularly valuable for students transitioning from junior college to degree college, many of whom were unfamiliar with the intricacies of the finance field and their future career options.

Session Format:

The session was structured around lectures, class discussions, and case studies, each specifically designed to enhance student understanding of the topics.

Day 1: Financial Planning – 10th August 2023

Mr. Kunjan Shah, an alumnus with extensive experience in financial planning, introduced students to the concept of financial planning and its importance in achieving personal financial goals. He covered key topics such as budgeting, saving, debt management, and risk mitigation strategies. Mr. Shah also discussed various financial products and services available to individuals, helping students make informed decisions about their finances.

Day 2: Portfolio Management – 12th August 2023

Mr. Swaminathan Krishnamurthy, an expert in portfolio management, focused on strategies for building and managing diversified investment portfolios. He explored various asset classes, including stocks, bonds, real estate, and alternative investments. Mr. Krishnamurthy emphasized the importance of risk management and diversification in creating a well-balanced portfolio aligned with individual risk tolerance and financial goals.

Day 3: Investment Alternatives – 13th August 2023

Mr. Karan Pai, a seasoned professional in the field of investment alternatives, provided insights into various investment options beyond traditional stocks and bonds. He discussed hedge funds, private equity, venture capital, and other alternative investments, highlighting their potential risks and rewards. Mr. Pai also offered guidance on evaluating different investment opportunities and making informed decisions based on individual circumstances.

Overall, the alumni session was a resounding success. It provided first-year students with a strong foundation in financial concepts and introduced them to the diverse career opportunities available in the field of finance. This initiative has undoubtedly helped students navigate their academic journey and prepare for their future careers with greater confidence and clarity.

The BFM Department of SIES College of Commerce and Economics (Autonomous), organised the session 'Budget 2023: Demystified', on 17th February 2023 between 9:00 am to 11 am. Dr Kapil Shrimal, Mr. Rajesh Hattangady, Mr. Pratyush Bhaskar(moderator), Ms. Varsha Lund, and Mr. Deekshant Boolchandani were invited to have a discussion, focusing on the various aspects of the budget presented by the finance minister Mrs Nirmala Sitharaman.

The session witnessed the participation of over 60 students and few teachers. Students mainly from BFM course attended this session. The overwhelming response by the students in order to attend this session was not overlooked by anyone.

The panellists arrived on time and had a small discussion as to which areas needed to be targeted and what would the flow of events be. They were then escorted to the auditorium by the PR team and the event started with a devotional song of Lord Ganesha sung by Antra Bhatnagar from TYBCOM. The panellists were introduced to the audience by the hosts Satvik Rane from FYBFM and Ananya Shetty from SYBFM and were presented with mementoes. Mr. Pratyush Bhaskar took charge as the moderator of the event.

As the moderator, Mr. Pratyush kept both the panellists and the students interested throughout the whole discussion. The students considered his moderating approach to be quite energising and were very pleased with how the session was run.

The students found Mr. Deekshant and Dr. Kapil's market knowledge and guidance to be insightful, and they found great value in their recommendations on how to trade.

Mr. Rajesh's analysis of the budget, his predictions for the expansion of the Indian economy over the next ten years, and his advice to the students on personal investing and budgeting were all quite pertinent and appropriate.

The students also found Ms. Varsha's explanation of the existing tax system and how it has affected and will continue to effect the tax bills of many people to be quite intriguing.

The presentation on the union budget was well received by the audience as being very interesting, instructive, and engaging. The students gained a better grasp of how the country's finances operate thanks to the clear explanation of the budget process, the most recent summary of how Adani stocks are affecting markets, mutual funds, and many more equity market discussions..

The panellists then entertained any questions arising in the audience's minds in order to get their concepts clear. The question-and-answer round was very interesting as it allowed the students an opportunity to interact with the panellists and share their views and queries.

The event was then concluded with a vote of thanks from the hosts thanking the speakers, the principal, the faculties, the organizing committee of the event and the audience.

Report of Session on Finance 101 with Manek Agicha

14th March, 2022

The BFM Department of SIES College of Commerce and Economics (Autonomous), organised a session on 'Finance 101 with Manek Agicha' as a part of its Finova Fest, on 2nd March, 2022 between 9:30 am and 10:30 pm. Mr. Manek Agicha conducted a 60-minute seminar, focusing on the various aspects of the stock market.

The session witnessed participation of around 100 students. Students from various courses such as BCOM, BFM, and BAF attended this session. The overwhelming response by the students in order to attend this session was not overlooked by anyone.

The speaker arrived on time and was then escorted to the auditorium by the PR team. The speaker was introduced to the audience by the host Hiya Doshi from SYBFM.

Mr. Agicha began the seminar by connecting with the audience by mentioning his age and how he was in our shoes just few years back, and how he got into investing.

He proceeded by talking about how his interest in the financial sector got him into making digital content, which soon caught the eye of Groww's content manager where he was offered a job as a freelancer to make content for them. He pointed out that his interests connected him to a really good company in its space and encouraged the rest of us to create content since its downsides are close to none but the upsides are endless.

He continued by talking about the essentials of investing and why it's really important to invest, especially at a young age when we can take the risks

This was followed by an interactive question-answer session where many questions were asked and aptly answered. When asked about cryptocurrency and NFTs, he stated that equity is preferred by him currently but his views could change in the future.

The seminar was then concluded with a vote of thanks from the host of the event, thanking the speakers, the organizing committee of the event and the audience. As a token of appreciation, the speaker was presented with a memento by the chairperson of the committee, Mr. Ashwamedh Nair.

Report of Session on Investment Banking 101

17th December, 2022

The BFM Department of SIES College of Commerce and Economics (Autonomous), organised a session on 'Investment Banking 101' as a part of its Finova Fest, on 17th December, 2022 between 10:30 am and 11:30 pm. Mr. Pratik Soni conducted a 60-minute seminar, focusing on the various aspects of investment banking.

The session witnessed participation of around 60 students. Students from various courses such as BCOM, BFM, and Junior College (JC) attended this session. The overwhelming response by the students in order to attend this session was not overlooked by anyone.

The speaker arrived on time and was then escorted to the classroom by the PR team. The speaker was introduced to the audience by the chairperson of the fest, Ashwamedh Nair from TYBFM.

Mr. Soni began the seminar by mentioning his previous experience as a guest speaker in various institutes and how he looks forward to such interactions.

He proceeded by asking the students what came to mind when they heard 'Investment Banking'. The students gave their explanations which was followed by the speaker giving his explanation for the term.

He continued by talking about the different types of investment banking and how the requirements for each type varied. He pointed out that the scope in this field is immense and very rewarding in terms of experience and financially.

The seminar was then concluded with a vote of thanks, thanking the speaker, the organizing committee of the event and the audience. As a token of appreciation, the speaker was presented with a memento by the chairperson of the committee, Mr. Ashwamedh Nair.

EVENT POSTER:
